CARD OF THANKS

We want to express our gratitude to all the friends who have shared our grief and have helped us bear the loss of our son and brother, Jackie Monroe Bansard.

We sincerely appreciate the beautiful flowers, the cards and notes of sympathy, the food provided by neighbors, and the visits of those who knew and loved Jackie. We are grateful to Reverent and Mrs. Floyd Wingfield, to Jackie's former classmates, and to those members of the State Police who helped us so much.

Jackie was a thoughtful and loving son and brother and was always a joy to us. He made friends easily because he enjoyed being with people and was interested in them. His concern for other people gave him a special pride in his work to which he was devoted.

Although we are confident that Jackie is with God whom he loved and trusted, we grieve because we miss him — his laughter, his kindness, his affection, and his enthusiasm for living. Without our faith in God and without the comfort and understanding of friends we could not face the future without him.

Sincerely,
Woodrow, Juanita, LaDonna & Nancy. 5-28-1t

I would like to thank my friends for the many acts of kindnesses shown me during my stay in the hospital and since my return home. Mary Alice Staples. 5-28-1t

I wish to thank my friends and neighbors for their calls, cards, flowers, fruits and visits during my illness. Sincerely, Ed Blackwell.

Thank you one and all for all your kindness during my stay in the hospital and since my return home. Lollie B. Turner, Appomattox, Va. 5-28-1p

We want to express our sincere appreciation to our pastor, Dr. Thomas D. Lea and his wife, and all of our friends, relatives, neighbors who were so kind and thoughtful during my stay in the hospital and since my return home.

We appreciate the flowers, gifts, food, cards, visits and calls. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.
Mrs. Lordon (Lila) Thomas 5-28-1p

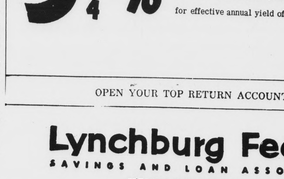
She Did Her 'Homework'

Edith Scruggs (Mrs. Abner) is one of several students enrolled in Mrs. V. A. Slaten's craft-class in jewelry box construction who took her "homework" home to complete. Each tiny box is encrusted with pearls, braid and other decorations and lined in soft velvet. These one-of-a-kind treasures started out as something quite different. Each one is a goose egg. The large eggs are rather difficult to obtain, says Mrs. Scruggs. Craftsmen with patience to decorate such fragile material are not found around every corner, either!

Keeps Dress For 70 Years



The old-fashioned dress is 70 years old, a keepsake of Mrs. Vina Kress (center) who celebrated her 74th birthday Monday. Beside her is her daughter Mrs. Hazel Johnson and her granddaughter, Rebecca. Rebecca went out to pick strawberries Monday and found the rather unusual "strawberry earring" she holds in her hand. The dark red dress is handstitched throughout, harking back to days of no sewing machines, but lots of love and patience on the part of Mrs. Kress' mother who made it for her out of red cotton fabric with a lining for sleeves and bodice.
